

Dianna Anderson

Painting on 3rd Street South and Broad Avenue South Under the Large Banyan Tree

Dianna is an award-winning artist inspired by nature. Dianna has studied with master artists in America and abroad. She holds degrees in Art and Education. She prefers to paint en plein air focusing on seascapes and landscapes combining elements from Realism and Impressionism. Dianna maintains studios in Kennebunk, Maine and Naples, Florida and her work can be seen on her website www.diannaandersonart.com

Dianna is a returning artist who is participating in her second year at Third on Canvas.