Painting on 3rd Street South in Front of Leggiadro and Sequin

Nancy can be described as a nature lover, traveling far and wide to see the landscapes, the birds, the animals and the varied Indigenous cultures of the world. Having always loved to draw and paint, becoming an outdoor, impressionist painter was a natural transition. The work is colorful, magical scenes of nature, tropical birds and special finds along the journey of life. Having few years of formal art education, she is largely self taught in watercolour, gouache, acrylic and oil paints as well as photography and ceramics.

As an outdoor painter, Nancy traveled to many countries such as France, Italy, Spain, Bavaria, Morocco, Guatemala and Argentina, and many others, enjoying the countryside and exploring the nooks and crannies of the tiny villages...she is not a city girl. She currently resides in South America and winters in Naples, Florida where she paints and makes pottery.

Nancy has participated in numerous national and international juried shows, one woman shows, past president of Bayshore Arts of Naples, Florida and a former gallery owner.

Nancy is participating in Third on Canvas for the third year.
