

Ed Herring

Painting on 3rd Street South and 13th Avenue South at Island Company

Ed became interested in art late in life. Self-taught and inspired by artists such as Monet, Turner and Renoir, as well as contemporary artists. He enjoys painting en-plein air using vivid colors and he strives for that ever-elusive natural light. Ed considers every painting a lesson learned.

Ed is a returning artist and is painting in Third on Canvas for his second year.
