

Janet Kirby

Painting at the Naples Beach Hotel & Golf Club

As a nature enthusiast, Janet has a strong passion for painting outdoors and loves taking a complex landscape scene and boiling it down to its essence, so the viewer may share the same love for the experience as she has witnessed. Her love for translating beauty and knowledge began as a journalist. Today She has traded in the typewriter and uses a paintbrush to tell the story.

Beginning her training in Wisconsin and Bucks County, PA, Janet has been blessed along the way with many art instructors who were talented, generous, and encouraging. As a member of the Creative Arts Center in Chatham, MA, she studied with national artists. She was also honored to be selected for several mentorship programs which provided her with one-on-one training and total emersion in week-long travels. She has painted with artists in Cape Cod, Maine, Florida and New Hampshire. This unique combination of influences is enabling the development of her representational style with an impressionistic flair.

Janet is a returning artist who will be painting in her second Third on Canvas.
