

Jack Schlueter

Painting on 14th Avenue South at the Naples Beach

Jack has been creating art ever since he can remember. After graduating college as a fine art major and then with a masters, he taught high school art for 44 years. Jack spends every summer in Blue Hill Maine and have only recently retired to Naples FL. He finds that the two places have more than enough to keep the creative juices flowing.

Jack is a returning artist that participated in Third on Canvas in 2016, 2017 and 2018.
