The paintings of Kevin Shea reflect love for outdoor life and the visual drama of the land and sea. Canvases comprise scenes of his New England home and the Gulf Coast of Florida, where he also teaches painting workshops. Tuscany is a second home for Shea where he trained and taught in Florence, later returning on painting sojourns and in recent years to conduct "Tuscany Painting Adventures" with students. His paintings have been displayed nationally with the American Artists Professional League and the Salmagundi Club. Kevin Shea art work has been contracted by Warner Brothers for the Epic - "Mystic River", and his classic "Twilight in the City" was a visual theme for the Boston Pops. He has been featured in the New York Times and on CNN and he shows with several Galleries.

Kevin is a returning artist that has been participating in Third on Canvas since 2008.
